S., V. and A. v. Denmark

22.10.2018

The case concerned the applicants' detention on 10 October 2009 for over seven hours when they were in Copenhagen to watch a football match between Denmark and Sweden. The authorities detained the applicants in order to prevent hooligan violence. The applicants unsuccessfully sought compensation before the Danish courts.

No violation of Article 5 § 1 \(right to liberty and security\)

The Court was satisfied that the Danish courts had struck the right balance between the applicants' right to liberty and the importance of preventing hooliganism.

Biao v. Denmark

24.05.2016

The case concerned the complaint by a naturalised Danish citizen of Togolese origin, Ousmane Biao, and his Ghanaian wife that they could not settle in Denmark. Notably, the Danish authorities refused to grant them family reunion as the couple did not comply with the requirement under the relevant domestic law (the Aliens Act) that they must not have stronger ties with another country, Ghana in their case, than with Denmark (known as the "attachment requirement"). The applicants also complained that an amendment to the Aliens Act in December 2003 – lifting the attachment requirement for those who held Danish citizenship for at least 28 years – resulted in a difference in treatment between those born Danish nationals and those, like Mr Biao, who had acquired Danish citizenship later in life.

Violation of Article 14 \(prohibition of discrimination\) read in conjunction with Article 8 \(right to respect for private and family life\)

The Court further held that there was no need to examine the application separately under Article 8 of the Convention taken alone.

Cases concerning private and family life (Article 8)

Levakovic v. Denmark

23.10.2018

The case concerned a decision to expel the applicant to Croatia, with which he had no ties apart from nationality, after he was tried and convicted for crimes committed in Denmark, where he had lived most of his life.

No violation of Article 8

Assem Hassan Ali v. Denmark

23.10.2018

The case concerned the expulsion from Denmark of a Jordanian national, who has six children of Danish nationality. He was deported in 2014 following convictions for drugs offences.

No violation of Article 8

Osman v. Denmark

14.06.2011

The case concerned the refusal to renew the Danish residence permit of a Somali girl, who had grown up with her family in Denmark, after she spent more than two years, allegedly against her will, living in Kenya. The right to family reunification for young people of her age (15-17) in Denmark was abolished while she was away.

Violation of Article 8

Amrollahi v. Denmark

11.07.2002

Impossibility for an Iranian citizen, convicted in Denmark of drugs offences and ordered to be expelled with a life-long ban on his return, to continue his family life with his Danish wife and child outside Denmark.

Violation of Article 8 if the decision to expel the applicant to Iran were to be implemented

Freedom of expression cases (Article 10)

Frisk and Jensen v. Denmark

05.12.2017

The case concerned two Danish journalists working for a national television station and their conviction of defamation following a programme broadcast in 2008 criticising the treatment of cancer at Copenhagen University Hospital.

No violation of Article 10

Inadmissible application

Roj TV A/S v. Denmark

24.05.2018

The case concerned the applicant company's conviction for terrorism offences by Danish courts for promoting the Kurdistan Workers' Party (PKK) through television programmes broadcast between 2006 and 2010. The domestic courts found it established that the PKK could be considered a terrorist organisation within the meaning of the Danish Penal Code and that Roj TV A/S had supported the PKK's terror operation by broadcasting propaganda. It was fined and its licence was withdrawn.

Application declared inadmissible as being incompatible ratione materiae with the provisions of the Convention.

T.N. v. Denmark, T.N. and S.N. v. Denmark, S.S. and Others v. Denmark, P.K. v. Denmark and N.S. v. Denmark

20.01.2010

The five cases concerned applications from nine Tamils claiming they risked persecution and ill-treatment by the authorities &/or the "Tamil Tigers" if deported from Denmark to Sri Lanka.

No violation of Article 3 (prohibition of inhuman or degrading treatment) if orders to deport the applicants to Sri Lanka were to be implemented.

Custers, Deveaux and Turk v. Denmark

03.05.2007

Members of Greenpeace complained about their conviction by the Danish courts of trespassing for taking part in a campaign in 2001 near the American "Thule Air Base" in North-West Greenland (an act which they alleged, at the time it had been committed, had not amounted to a criminal offence under Danish law).

No violation of Article 7 (no punishment without law)

Vasileva v. Denmark

25.09.2003

Concerned the detention in police custody overnight of the applicant, a 67 year old woman in poor health, after she had had a dispute with a ticket collector on public transport and refused to disclose her identity.

Violation of Article 5 § 1 (right to liberty and security)

Noteworthy cases, decisions delivered

Alam v. Denmark

29.06.2017

The application concerned an expulsion and life-long ban of a Pakistani national from Denmark. In 2013 Ms Alam was convicted of aggravated attempted robbery, murder and arson and sentenced to 16 years' imprisonment and expulsion from Denmark. Ms Alam, who has spent nearly her entire life in Denmark and has permanent residence, complained that her expulsion would separate her from her children, born in Denmark in 2000 and 2004, and from the husband she recently married in 2015.
