

Inter-American and European
Human Rights Journal
Revista Interamericana
y Europea
de Derechos Humanos

What can be Learned from International Human Rights Systems?

¿Qué se puede aprender de los sistemas
internacionales de derechos humanos?

CLARA BURBANO-HERRERA (ed.)

TABLE OF CONTENTS / TABLA DE CONTENIDO

Implementing Minority and Indigenous Peoples' Rights: Regional Comparisons LUCY CLARIDGE	289
The Inclusion of the Social Question within the Gender Perspective: Notes to Rewrite 'Cotton Fields' LAURA CLÉRICO and CELESTE NOVELLI	313
Fostering Domestication of Human Rights through the Exhaustion of Domestic Remedies: A Lesson Learned from the ECtHR Pilot and Leading Judgment Procedures AYŞEGÜL UZUN MARINKOVIĆ and KREŠIMIR KAMBER	334
Assessing the Right to a "Dignified Life" in the Context of Social and Cultural Rights Protection: Judicial Success or Failure? ENZAMARIA TRAMONTANA	358
The Impact of the Gomes Lund Case in Brazil: Perspectives from Family Members of the Victims BRUNO BOTI BERNARDI	377
The Migrants Smuggling Protocol: An Unfinished Business KINGA JANIK	398
From Grandrath to Bayatyan: The Development of European Jurisprudence on Conscientious Objection to Military Service ANDREAS C. YIANNAROS	428
The Importance of the Relationship between Domestic Institutions and the Inter-American System for the Protection of Human Rights SABRINA RAGONE	456
Striving for 'Never Again': A European Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance and the Veiled Protection of Article 2 of the ECHR HANNAH RUSSELL	470

EU Human Rights and Democratization Policies in a Changing World FELIPE GÓMEZ ISA	500
Indigenous Resistance to the Agua Zarca Dam in Honduras: Hydropower Funding of State-Sponsored Repression and the Limits of International Human Rights Jurisprudence MARISOL LEÓN	517

ISBN 978-1-78068-502-1

NUR 828

Inter-American and European Human Rights Journal @ Intersentia
Reproduced with permission of Intersentia